HIRE A CANALBOAT LTD.
Hirer's Arrival Agreement – Sawley Marina

1) We confirm our arrival at Sawley Marina. Our party has a total of _____ people including _____ babies and children under twelve years of age. Accepted

2) We understand that whilst moored in the marina we are responsible for security and that the marina gates are to be kept closed/locked at all times where applicable. Accepted

3) We understand and accept that prior to taking out our allocated boat we will receive compulsory tuition, including a film, on boat handling and safety. We appreciate that, for reasons of health and safety should we wish to cruise, a working knowledge of English is essential to ensure that tuition is fully understood and to ensure effective communication with other canal users. Accepted

4) Only a qualified member of Hire a Canalboat staff or its official representative must take out from or bring boats into the marina, where applicable.

GUESTS MUST NOT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES ATTEMPT TO DO THIS

Upon our return to the vicinity of the marina, we will contact reception and arrangements will be made to bring us into the marina, if our arrival is within normal working hours. Boats arriving after this time will be moored up properly at a safe location until a member of staff is available the next day. Accepted

We understand and accept that our allocated boat must be returned to and moored safely outside the marina by no later than dusk on.day _____ of _____ Accepted

5) We will keep the telephone on the allocated boat switched on at all times and properly charged. Accepted

6) In case of problem, breakdown or emergency, we will use the telephone on board to call reception, the engineer/maintenance or the emergency services. In such a situation we accept that it is imperative that we indicate our position/whereabouts. We will therefore use the supplied map at all times and obtain our own if we lose the map or cruise beyond the area shown on that map.
Boats rely upon numerous factors to enable them to cruise. Whilst every care is taken, the Company cannot be held responsible for the loss of cruising time should a breakdown or other unforeseen circumstance occur. Accepted

7) WE UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THAT WHEN ON THE WATERWAY, WE SHOULD FOLLOW THE WATERWAYS CODE. THE COMPANY RESERVES THE RIGHT, WHERE MISDEMEANOURS ARE COMMITTED AND/OR REPORTED, TO RETURN THE ALLOCATED BOAT TO THE RESORT MARINA. IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, REQUESTS AND APPLICATIONS FOR COMPENSATION WILL NOT BE ENTERTAINED. Accepted

8) We will follow the daily maintenance schedule as instructed during the tuition period. Accepted

9) We accept that we will not under any circumstances interfere with any of the mechanical equipment of the boat, particularly that relating to the engine, throttle, ignition panel or electrics and related equipment. The only exception to this is the daily adjustment of the stern grease gland as directed by a Hire a Canalboat representative. Therefore, should we, through negligence or misadventure damage the boat and/or its fittings; we are liable for the cost of repairs. Accepted

- 10) We understand and accept that when leaving the boat whilst moored all doors and hatches will be securely locked and the curtains drawn on the side adjacent to the mooring. Accepted
- 11) We understand and accept that we must vacate our allocated boat no later than 9.30 am (09.30 hrs) on the day of departure, which isday, _____ of _____.
- It is clear that if this is not adhered to the Company reserves the right to charge us at a rate of up to £100.00 per hour or part thereof. Accepted
- 12) We understand and accept that our boat will sleep a total number of _____ persons including babies and children and appreciate that for health, safety and insurance reasons we will not allow this number to be exceeded, under any circumstances. If it is found that more people are in occupation than the number for which the boat is licenced and insured, then the Company reserves the right to immediately take possession of the boat with no refund and with no right to any compensation. We are also liable for a retrieval fee equal to the refundable deposit paid. Accepted
- 13) We understand and accept that no animals or pets are allowed on any boat, unless previously agreed and paid for at the time of booking. If it is found that animal(s) of any description have been taken on board, then the Company reserves the right to immediately take possession of the boat with no refund and no right to compensation. There will also be a minimum fee of £100.00 charged to cover the cost of a special deep clean of the boat to ensure the acceptability of the boat for the future occupants. Under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 guide dogs, hearing dogs and alert dogs are exempted from this condition. Accepted
- 14) We have been issued with a boat manual and will familiarise ourselves with safety procedures including the use of fire extinguishers. The boat manual is for use during occupation of the boat and must be returned to the office at check out. Upon receipt of the manual and a satisfactory check out report, the security deposit will be refunded. Accepted
- 15) In the event that parking is provided within the marina confines, the marina owners accept no responsibility for any damage sustained to vehicles whilst entering, parking or leaving the Marina. Parking is at the risk of the car owner. Accepted

We have read the above and fully accept all points, terms, conditions and implications.
